

(H) Classification and Public Release Review MFR

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: Classification and Public Release Review of "Title of Submission"

1. Background: Joint Special Operations University (JSOU Press) operates under the principle of "security review at source." It is the responsibility of the author, when a current or former U.S. government (USG) employee or contractor, to submit materials for prepublication review through either their parent organization or the DoD pre-publication review process.

2. Check statement(s) that apply

____ I confirm that "Title of Submission" underwent classification review through "Organization" on "Day/Month/Year" and was approved for publication.

____ I confirm that "Title of Submission" underwent Public Release Review through "Organization" on "Day/Month/Year" and was approved for publication.

____ I confirm that I have never served as an employee of the United States Government (USG) or a contractor to the USG. I further state that none of the source material used in "Title of Submission" is from a source inside the USG that could represent an unauthorized breach of confidentiality or appears to be proprietary information of a private organization.
